Tbilisi Half Day City Tour (14:00)

≈ 3-4 hours | Overnight in Tbilisi

After breakfast in the hotel, we will start our tour by visiting Old Tbilisi. First, we will visit Metekhi, where the statue of the city's royal founder, Vakhtang Gorgasali, overlooks the Mtkvari River and Meidan Bazaar. Soon after, we will stroll through Shardeni Street, full of colorful cafes and restaurants. Later, we will walk across the contemporary Bridge of Peace that links the old part of the city to the Rike Park. From the park we will take a cable car to Narikala Fortress and continue walking to the statue of Mother of Georgia that symbolizes our national character: the statue holds a wine chalice in one hand for guests and a sword for enemies in the other. Shortly after, we will descend to Abanotubani, the district of naturally hot sulfur waters, and carry on with a walk to Leghvtakhevi, with a beautiful waterfall. Hotel accommodation and overnight stay in Tbilisi (B/-/-).

25.08-Day 2: Tbilisi - Borjomi - Tbilisi

≈ 7-8 hours | 340 km | Overnight in Tbilisi

After breakfast in the hotel, we will start our tour by visiting Borjomi. It is a hydrothermal health spa resort in the southern region of Georgia and has always been famous for medical purposes, and volcanic mineral water Borjomi – the 'Pearl of the Caucasus'. Soon after, we will walk through Borjomi Central Park. The park has an ecological theme and features children's amusement rides, a swimming pool and cinema. Another attraction in the park is the statue of Prometheus, standing at the base of a small waterfall. Also, near the entrance of the park, you will be able to try mineral water directly from the spring. After enjoying your time in a beautiful park, we will then head to Tbilisi. Hotel accommodation and overnight stay in Tbilisi (B/-/-).

26.08-Day 3: Tbilisi - Gudauri - Kazbegi - Tbilisi

≈7-8 hours | 330 km | Overnight in Tbilisi

After breakfast in the hotel, we will start our tour by visiting Kazbegi in northeastern Georgia. Your first stop will be at Ananuri Complex, a former residence of the Aragvi Dukes dating back to the 16th and 17th centuries. The fortress beautifully overlooks the Zhinvali Dam, one of the main reservoirs of Georgia. Shortly, we will head to see the conjunction of two small mountain rivers, Tetri Aragvi and Shavi Aragvi, that are famous for their white and black colors and they won't mix even after merging. We will then make a stop at Gudauri Panorama, built in the late 19th century, is a circular balcony hanging off a 600-meter cliff with breathtaking views of the Caucasus Mountains. Shortly after, we will arrive in Kazbegi town and drive up to Gergeti, which is located at an altitude of 2170 m above the sea level, under the bed of Mount Kazbegi (5047 m). The mountain is Georgia's third highest peak. Here we will enjoy unique nature with beautiful panoramic views of the Caucasus. Finally, it is time to return to Tbilisi. Hotel accommodation and overnight stay in Tbilisi (B/-/-).

27.08-Day 4: Tbilisi - Bodbe - Signaghi - Tbilisi

≈7-8 hours | 250 km | Overnight in Tbilisi

After breakfast in the hotel, we will start our tour by visiting Kakheti region, Georgia's premier wine-producing area and home to hundreds of historical and architectural monuments. First, we will visit Bodbe, which is immersed in the green forest and known for the burial site of St. Nino. After that, we will head to Signaghi, known as the City of Love, with an amazing position perched on a lofty hilltop overlooking the snow-capped Caucasus looming in the distance across the vast Alazani Valley. Its charming cobblestone streets and alleys, restored original nouveau woodwork, and detailed facades give the town a romantic mystique. Soon then you will have a chance to walk over the Signaghi Wall, built in the 18th century. There is also a local market where you can taste and buy Georgian spices, sweets, and much more. If desired, we can visit KTW Winery to try Georgian wine. Finally, we will return to Tbilisi. Hotel accommodation and overnight stay in Tbilisi (B/-/-).

28.08-Day 5: Tbilisi - Mtskheta - Uplistsikhe Cave - Tbilisi

≈7-8 hours | 180 km | Overnight in Tbilisi

After breakfast in the hotel, we will start our tour by visiting Mtskheta, the former capital of Georgia, and one of the ancient cities in Europe. Along the way, we will visit the 6th-century Jvari, located on the rocky mountain peak. From there you will enjoy the view of Aragvi and Mtkvari river. It is included in the UNESCO World Heritage List. Shortly after, we will drive to Svetitskhoveli Cathedral, the second largest church in Georgia and the burial site of Christ's Robe. On our way to the cathedral, we pass by souvenir shops, cafes, and restaurants. Then we will drive to visit Uplistsikhe Cave Town - a rock-hewn town and one of the oldest settlements in the Caucasus. It is magnificent in its sizes, perfect workmanship, and graceful architectural forms. Some premises, wine storages, fragments of temples and fortifications, and the secret underground tunnel used for water supply are still intact. Nowadays, it is considered to be an open-air museum. After that, we will drive back to Tbilisi. Hotel accommodation and overnight stay in Tbilisi (B/-/-).
